

学长的鸡上午光影下的静谧时刻

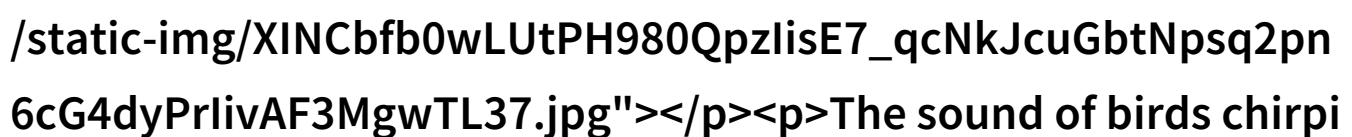

在一个阳光明媚的清晨，空气中弥漫着淡淡的花香，我坐在学长家的院子里，坐落于一只温驯的大黄鸡膝盖上的小石凳上。我的笔尖轻触纸张，随着微风轻轻摇曳，每个字都仿佛在呼唤着周围世界的声音。我写的是作业，一份需要我用心去理解和掌握的数学题。

我抬头望向那只大黄鸡，它安静地站在旁边，用它温暖而坚定的目光看着我。我知道，它对我的存在感到好奇，但它并没有因为我的突然出现而惊吓或逃跑。这让我感到一种与自然界和谐共处的快乐。

chickens are very intelligent animals, they can recognize and remember people's faces, and even have a certain hierarchy among themselves. The chicken in front of me was no exception.

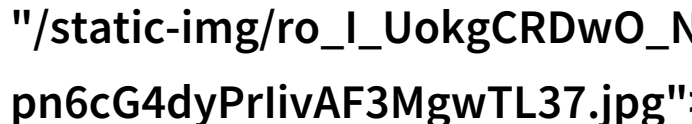

As I sat on the stone bench, surrounded by the sounds of nature, I felt my mind slowly becoming clearer. The sunlight filtered through the leaves of the trees above us, casting dappled shadows on the ground. It was as if time had slowed down for us here - just me and this magnificent creature sharing a moment in our lives.

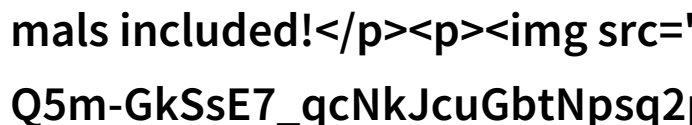

The sound of birds chirping filled my ears as I wrote each word with precision and care. My thoughts were focused on solving each problem step by step while also taking note of every detail about my surroundings. Each stroke of my pen seemed to be accompanied by an invisible symphony conducted by Mother Nature herself.

I noticed that the chicken would occasionally glance at me out of curiosity or affection before returning its gaze to its own world - pecking at grains or observing other creatures passing by. It was clear th at it did not feel threatened or uncomfortable with my presence but instead saw me as part of its daily routine.

As I continued writing under the gentle morning sunbeams, I began to appreciate how much we humans could learn from these simple creatures' way of living without stress or anxiety over trivial matters like human-made deadlines or competition among peers. They lived life according to their natural instincts without any need for artificial distractions such as smartphones which often dominate our modern existence today.

In this serene setting where nature provided both physical comfort (the soft warmth emanating from beneath) and mental clarity (the peaceful atmosphere), everything became more meaningful than ever before: even completing homework took on a new dimension when performed alongside such tranquility amidst mother earth's creations - animals included!

In conclusion, sitting on top a chicken during class hours turned out to be one unexpected yet delightful experience!
